

How to perform Piece for Clarinet, Flute and Vibraphone

1. There should be a cue-giver assigned.
2. Each player has a part consisting of measures to be repeated an indicated number of times. Each measure contains 60 beats.
3. The cue-giver indicates to the performers when to change measures every 60 beats.
4. There are 6 sections to be played in the same manner. The cue-giver might want to indicate a change of section.

No, there is no score – it is unnecessary. Any questions?
